Covington is transformed to "Whoseville" for 2 memorable weekends of family fun!

Friday, November 10th - Christmas

Tree lighting 5:30pm at the Government Building. Come join our Covington High School Choir members and usher in our Holiday Season.

Saturday, November 11th -

Come spend the afternoon with us and enjoy creating a special one of a kind holiday picture at The Ostrich and The Frog (classes are still available) or participate in the Who Hash Dash. Information is on The Ostrich and The Frog Facebook page. Cloud Nine Creations, the stained glass shop, will be demonstrating how to stain glass throughout the day.

Sunday, November 12th - See the listings of painting classes at The Ostrich and The Frog.

Friday, November 17th - Sleigh Rides 6pm-8pm

Saturday, November 18th - Start your day with our new Whoseville 5K Fun Run at the old Middle School area on Grant Street. Registration can be seen on Can'tStopRunning.com or stop in at The Stitchery, 20 N. High St., Covington. Santa will be arriving by Fire Truck at 1:00pm and will stay in town for picture opportunities from 1-4pm at Koverman Staley Dickerson Insurance office, 16 Wright Street. Pictures with the Grinch and Cindy Lou Who, can be taken at 1, 2 or 3pm that afternoon. Come in your favorite Whoseville costume, send to Facebook page (Covington Candlelight Christmas) to enter to win prizes.

Sunday, November 19th - Come enjoy our popular "Home Tour" from 5-8pm. Tickets are $10.00 and can be purchased at specialty shops in downtown Covington.
